HAPPY DUSSEHRA

Start one small habit this Vijayadashami.

One that takes 10 minutes a day, and changes how a site team works.

THE HABIT

A 10-minute morning huddle with your site leads.

- Same time, every day
- Standing, not sitting
- Three questions. Nothing else.

QUESTION ONE

What did we finish yesterday?

Progress is said out loud, not assumed. The team hears what moved, and who moved it.

01

QUESTION TWO

What will we finish today?

Everyone leaves with one clear target for the day. Not a list of ten, one that matters.

02

QUESTION THREE

What is blocking us?

Problems come up at 9 AM, while there is still a day to fix them. Not at 6 PM.

03

WHY IT WORKS

Small habit. Big difference.

01 Fewer follow-up calls through the day

02 Small issues caught before they grow

03 The team owns the plan, not just the manager

What habit would you start with your team this Dussehra?
